When can I get started bidding on and buying cars?

Once we have received and reviewed your application, we will send you the details of the bank account to send your deposit of 100,000 Japanese Yen to. This is a one-off deposit for the period during which you are buying from us, not a per-car deposit. As soon as your deposit is received, we will send you your log in information and you can start bidding on and buying vehicles through us.

If you have any questions before you start, ask us by email at contactus@providecars.com. The application form starts on the next page....
